CHARGES FRAUD, PERJURY, BIGAMY AGAINST SEWELL

Wife From Whom Vice-President of American Smelting and Refining Co. Obtained Secret Divorce, Sues.

WANTS DIVORCE DECREE GRANTED SET ASIDE

Asserts Husband Never Was Resident of Tennessee and That He Cast Her Off to Marry Another Woman.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Julia Thayer Sewell yesterday in Chancery Court here, filed a highly sensational bill against Barton Sewell of New York, seeking to annul a decree of divorce obtained through the Circuit Court by secret proceedings, and, as alleged, by gross fraud, on the seventh day of last January, while she was enjoying a pleasure trip to Europe.

The bill briefly recites the fact of their marriage in Chicago in 1873, of their having lived there until seven years ago, when they moved to New York and lived for several years at the Waldorf-Astoria; that on Nov. 14, 1904, Sewell filed here his bill for divorce, alleging his and her residence to be in Tennessee, when she claims neither lived in Tennessee, but in New York City. His bill further charged that his wife had contracted the habit of drunkenness, and she had willfully deserted him; that years ago they had separated on account of her misconduct in matters which he did not desire to relate for her sake and the sake of their children, whose names he did not care to reveal, and that the wife was associating with immoral persons on her European trip.

Publication of the non-resident notice for defendant was made in an obscure weekly paper and the bill itself was kept from the newspapers at the time at the instance of the husband. An order was made requiring the defendant to appear on the first Monday of January, 1905, and when she did not appear the trial was held on pro-conseco proceedings in chambers and a decree granted.

Mrs. Sewell Makes Charges.

In her bill Mrs. Sewell alleges that the proceedings were fraudulent, that Sewell might have been another woman, Elizabeth B. Ritchie of New York, whom Sewell married in New York, and is now living with her. All of the charges made in his bill, she alleges, are false, and she charges Sewell with perjury and subornation of perjury in obtaining witnesses to swear in his case. Instead of the wife deserting the husband, she alleges that on Sept. 11, 1904, he abandoned her and she has been living with her prior to the marriage. The usual oath to the truth of the facts alleged in the bill is made before James Haggerty, a notary public of Kings County, N. Y.

The secrecy and fraud alleged in this case, which has caused a sensation in court circles, is said to be of that year ago practiced on Mrs. Mabel Wilson of New York, who had made all of the charges in her bill, and who had obtained a secret decree which was later set aside for fraud.

President of Smelting Co.

Barton Sewell, from whom sensational charges are made, is President of the American Smelting and Refining Co., which has made all of the most fabulous fortunes for the Guggenheim family and others having an inside knowledge of its affairs. He is also President of the United and Co., a corporation controlled by the Guggenheims. He is Vice-President of the Hottel Metal Co., Vice-President of the Barden Copper Co., All President of the Pine Products Co. and other successful corporations of great wealth.

Mrs. Sewell, who is reported to be worth several millions, is about 60 years old. He lives in a fine home at 12 West Seventy-sixth street. He makes his business headquarters at 71 Broadway in the office of the American Smelting and Refining Co.

Mr. Sewell has two sons by the wife who makes the charges against him. One of these, William B. Sewell, is 30 years old; the other, Frederick, is 25.

When questioned last night about the charges Mr. Sewell said:

"This is all news to me. I haven't heard a word about any writ against me by my former wife. I have not been served with any papers, and I can't say what I'll do."

Jap, Russian and American Who Took Part in Effort to Make Peace at Portsmouth

BARON K. KATO, JAPANESE MINISTER OF JUSTICE, PRES. ROOSEVELT, and BARON ROSEN, RUSSIAN MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

MORE HOPE FOR PEACE IN DELAY

against hope, there is still a possibility that the Emperor will take President Roosevelt's advice and take the only step which the President thinks can save the conference from shipwreck.

The President's suggestion is not general and vague, but quite concrete.

If it is finally rejected it is said not to involve a specific answer, but Mr. Witte is anxious that the Emperor shall have full time to deliberate, and the Japanese have no desire to force the issue.

They will welcome a few days' delay if the delay keeps the door to peace open.

There is a strong intimation that the Japanese are prepared to make a proposition when the conference reassembles.

But there is nothing to indicate that they are prepared to recede on either Articles 5 or 8. Articles 10 and 11 they might forego, but that would hardly bring peace nearer.

Five and nine remain now, as at the beginning, the seemingly insurmountable obstacles to peace.

Article 10 of Japan's demands provides that the Russian warships involved in neutral ports shall be turned over to Japan.

Article 11 calls for the limitation of Russia's naval power in the Far East.

"HOPE OF PEACE SO SMALL REGARD IT LOST."

BY SAMUEL G. BLYTHE, Special Correspondent, New York World and Post-Dispatch.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 22.—I have obtained the following authoritative statement of the Russian position:

"We do not believe there is any possibility of peace in the situation, which seems to us to be very strained. The conditions of the Japanese are humiliating to Russia. Russia has made every concession she can make."

"It seems to us that the Japanese are trying to drag things along. They come manager, and that Stephen Cotter, who assumed the duties of general superintendent, Aug. 1, has grown up with the Wabash."

The change of policy by the new Vice-President is said to be no greater than might be expected to follow a change of officers.

MADE MARRIAGE STRENUOUS

Checked in Elopement, Obtains Consent, Then Weds Another.

DURANT, I. T., Aug. 21.—An angered father's prompt telephoning to the County Clerk of Grayson put a stopper on the intended marriage of Miss Mattie Wilson and C. Head of Durant, who had eloped to Sherman for that purpose. Upon their return the young couple again avowed their intention of being married, and the father finally decided to offer no objections.

The wedding day was set, license secured, the bridegroom's bridegroom and everything was in readiness for the event, but on the day set, however, just a few minutes before train time, Miss Wilson surprised every one by suddenly marrying an old sweetheart, F. Deles by name. Mr. and Mrs. Deles departed immediately on the southbound train to leave home of the husband at Henrietta, Tex.

The jilted lover seemed to take things philosophically. He went to the train and bid his former sweetheart good-bye.

WABASH CHIEF ENGINEER RESIGNS

Newhall's Retirement Said Not to Be Due to Delano-Ramsey Conflict.

Walter S. Newhall has resigned the position of Chief Engineer of the Wabash Railroad and Andrew O. Cunningham, former Chief Bridge Engineer, has been appointed to fill the vacant office. The resignation of Engineer Newhall is said by Wabash men to have no connection with the controversy between President Ramsey and Vice-President Delano.

It is reported that Mr. Wabash general offices Tuesday morning that Mr. Newhall had tendered his resignation to President Ramsey a year ago, but had been persuaded to remain with the road. At that time he gave failing health as his reason for wishing to retire.

It is reported that Mr. Newhall will go to Cleveland, O., where he will be consulting engineer for a large construction company. Mr. Newhall was not at his office here Tuesday.

The report that former Wabash employees are being replaced by men from the Burlington Railroad is denied at the Wabash general offices. It is pointed out that E. D. Taylor, formerly private secretary to President Ramsey, is chief clerk to the new general

HER KNIFE FOR UNWILLING DANCER

Man Says He Refused to Trip Fantastic Toe and Was Cut in Neck.

SHE HAD TWO ARRESTED

Judge Pollard Frees Men After Hearing Story of Cozens Avenue Melee.

John O'Hara of 2031 Howard street, William Ahearn of 1925 North Grand avenue and William Winniger of 3431 Cozens avenue, charged in Dayton street Police Court Tuesday with disturbing the peace of Mrs. Martha Nolan of 3417 Cozens avenue, testified that all the trouble was caused by the refusal of Edward Beskel of 3006 Cass avenue to dance with her.

They said they were having mandolin and guitar music in Winniger's back yard when Mrs. Nolan invited them to come over into her yard. They did so, and she then wanted to dance with Beskel, one of the party, but he declined.

She then, they said, got her butcher knife and drove them out of the yard. Winniger said he was stabbed in the neck and that the others saved themselves by jumping the fence.

Mrs. Nolan had them arrested, charging that they were fighting and throwing rocks in her back yard. Judge Pollard discharged the men.

95-CENT SHAVE

WELL K'D BY JUDGE

John Deffenbach, after coming all the way from Memphis, Tenn., to see a St. Louis barber fined for charging an exorbitant price for a shave, will travel all the way back without that sweet satisfaction. George Sternberg, arrested on his complaint, charged with disturbing the peace, was discharged by Judge Spaulding in the City Hall Police Court Tuesday.

Deffenbach says that he went into the Keystone barber shop Saturday night to get a shave. Whether he needed it or not, he says, he knew that he wanted nothing but a shave, just 15 cents' worth of that.

"Massage?" asked the barber pleasantly, as he scraped away the last stubble.

"No," the Memphis man says he said. "Well, I'll give you one, anyhow," said the barber, according to Deffenbach. While he rubbed the almond cream in and then rubbed it out of his face the patient underwent mildly at the generosity of St. Louis. He wondered more energetically when the barber took his refusal of a shampoo and a hair tonic in the same manner. He was a barber, he said, when he shaved his check, to wit:

"Please pay cashier $5 cents."

There were indications that a rough house would follow refusal to pay, but Deffenbach, who had been protesting, he was not assaulted nor was profane language directed at him, by him.

The court decided that on the evidence there had been no legally-defined disturbance of Deffenbach's peace.

Slaves and uninvited passengers on freight trains from the South will have a hard time getting into Missouri if the recommendations of Dr. R. H. Good-year, President of the State Board of Health, are followed.

Dr. Goodyear was in St. Louis Tuesday on his way to Hannibal from Cape Girardeau and called on Health Commissioner Snodgrass. While at Cape Girardeau, Dr. Goodyear made a careful inspection of the situation and the means employed by the railroads and local health authorities to prevent the importation of yellow fever.

He said he was preparing a letter to the heads of the freight departments of the different railroads in which he will urge them to instruct freight crews to use every means to prevent tramps coming north on their trains. Dr. Goodyear believes there is no danger of the disease being brought into Missouri by people traveling on passenger trains, and as the rigid inspection would result in their discovery.

He said J. A. B. Adcock, Secretary of the State Board of Health, is at Greengarden, where three Italians had yellow fever, and that he will go there Thursday to make a personal investigation.

RESTORED TO PARENTS AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS BY POST-DISPATCH

MRS. HERMAN WIPERN.

Mrs. Herman Wipern Now in Nebraska With Father and Mother From Whom She Was Kidnapped When 2 Years Old.

Mrs. Herman Wipern of St. Louis is now with her parents in Gross, Neb., from whom she was stolen 18 years ago. The reunion was brought about by a story in the Post-Dispatch, to which Mrs. Wipern appealed in her effort to locate her parents.

All that she knew about them was that they lived somewhere in Nebraska, or did at the time she was kidnapped. The Post-Dispatch article was reprinted in a Nebraska paper and it attracted the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schenost. For 18 years they had lived in hope of some day getting tidings of their lost daughter. From the circumstances related by Mrs. Wipern they concluded there was a strong probability that she was their daughter.

SALMOTORMEN BET ON RACES IN A SALOON

Private Secretary of General Manager McCulloch Gets Evidence of Gambling on Which Saloonist Metter Is Arrested.

TOOK POLICEMAN ALONG IN MOTORMAN'S SUIT

Policeman Made Bet, His Cap Serving as Identification and Saloon Keeper Is Then Taken Into Custody.

Disguised as motormen, J. G. Seville, private secretary to General Manager McCulloch of the United Railways Co., and Special Policeman James T. Landy of the Central District, have obtained evidence resulting in the arrest Tuesday of Saloonkeeper George J. Metter, 2701 Chippewa street, on a charge of violating the anti-pool-selling law.

Some time ago, Manager McCulloch was informed that a number of United Railways conductors and motormen were disobeying his order forbidding gambling by United Railways employees. Private Secretary Seville at once donned a motorman's uniform and went to work on the case.

He claims to have learned that the men were betting on races at outside tracks, and that the betting was done at Metter's saloon. He says that he made Metter's acquaintance and became so friendly that Metter intrusted him with the task of "steering" new United Railways employees to the saloon to gamble.

Finally, Seville says, he reported to Manager McCulloch that he had promised to "steer" to Metter's saloon a certain new motorman who was desirous of plunging a bit on outside races. Believing that the man was a bet, Manager McCulloch at once laid the matter before Police Captain Boyd, who detailed Policeman Landy to work on the case.

Policeman as Motorman.

Landy was fitted out by Manager McCulloch with a complete motorman's uniform, including a cap which bore the number 3818. Then, accompanied by Police Sergeant Stewart and Policeman Candell, whom he left, however, about a block from the saloon, Landy went to make Metter's acquaintance. Metter preceded him, "telling Saloon Keeper Metter that the "new motorman" was outside and wanted to place a bet.

"I'll have to see him first," Metter is reported as saying. "Must know that he's all right before I take any chances."

Then Landy was brought in and introduced to Metter, who apparently found him "all right."

"I've got a good thing in the third race at Latonia," Landy said to Saloon Keeper Metter, according to the report.

It is charged that Saloon Keeper Metter accepted Landy's bet and made a record of the bet by taking the number on Landy's motorman's cap. When this had been done Landy went outside and signaled to Sgt. Stewart and Policeman Candell, who entered the saloon and placed Metter under arrest. A warrant was sworn out later before Assistant Prosecutor Attorney Dalton.

It is charged that Metter has been conducting quite an extensive book in this manner, his patrons being United Railways employees, whose names are said to be known to Manager McCulloch. A number of conductors and motormen are expected to be discharged soon as a result.

DENVER RECEIVER SUES. Files Suit to Recover Savings Bank Stock.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 22.—Depositors of the Denver Savings Bank have brought suit against the National Bank of North America of New York City to recover $200,000, alleged to be the value of 1400 shares of the Denver Savings Bank stock standing in the name of C. E. Willey and hypothecated by the New York Bank for $200,000.

Another suit against the National Bank of North America has been filed by Guy Leroy Stevick, receiver of the Denver Savings Bank, to recover $200,000, alleged to have been paid Henry Chapin, Vice-President of the National Bank of North America. Stevick says the $200,000 was paid to Chapin on account of a loan his bank made to Willey and to Imboden.

Chapin was on board a train for New York when he was served with the summons.

Brave Brakeman, Leaps From Car and Risks His Life in the River to Drag a Dying Boy to the Shore

JOSEPH M'MANUS.

Swims to Drowning Lad and Brings Him in, but Death Claims Its Victim Despite Diligent Efforts at Resuscitation.

Elmer Wells, a Wiggins Ferry brakeman, is eligible as a candidate for one of the Carnegie "hero medals" provided for the reward of persons who risk their own lives in brave attempts to save the lives of others.

Wells was on top of a freight car in a Terminal train passing the foot of Mound street about noon Monday when, looking out into the river, he saw a boy beyond his depth and was struggling frantically to keep his head above water. Even as he looked, Wells saw the boy sink beneath the surface, but he reappeared a moment later.

Quick as a flash the brakeman sprang from the moving train to the ground and plunged into the river's edge. Then he plunged into the water and swam out with rapid strokes to where the boy was still visible. The lad sank again as Wells came near, and his rescuer dived after him.

The boy had cried for help just before disappearing, and Wells realized that it was the cry of a drowning person, already struggling with water and

AFTER RECORDS OF HYDE AND HOLMES DEATH DISCOVERED BY CATS YOWLING

Bankers Cautel On to Give Information of Dealings of Former Crop Statisticians.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—It has developed that in addition to the cotton leak scandal inquiry being prosecuted by the Federal grand jury here a number of detectives have been detailed to investigate the financial transactions of John Hyde and Edwin S. Holmes, former chief and associate statisticians of the Agricultural Department.

These detectives have been given a letter by the District Attorney and will visit each of the various banks, safe deposit vaults and trust companies in Washington to learn whether Holmes or Hyde at any time had accounts, joint or otherwise, or safe deposits in one or more of the various institutions.

It has not been known heretofore that the authorities, in addition to the effort to find out whether Holmes and Hyde were on the trail of the cotton leak, were also making an effort to discover the irregularities in the bureau of statistics of the Agricultural Department occurred with full knowledge on the part of former Statistician Hyde.

But this fact that Mr. Hyde's financial record is being investigated into, it is said, has not occasioned any surprise on the part of those familiar with the post there.

Mr. Hyde's sudden departure for England June 22, 1934, at the time the grand jury needed him as a witness, together with his present presumably indefinite sojourn across the water, would have given a pretext for the inquiry. It is understood, even if the authorities had not previously determined to go to the bottom of the cotton report leak and make the investigation thorough.

FEVER DOCTORS THREATEN LEACH

Expose 12 Deaths of Arsenic Patients If He Claims Credit, They Say.

MISSOURI CASE ALARMS

Condition in New Orleans Is Worse Today, With an Increased Death Rate.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22.—The committee which has charge of arrangements for Dr. Leach's inoculation with yellow fever announced this morning that a statement would be issued tonight, claiming that the reduction in the number of yellow fever cases and the reduced number of deaths during the past few days has been due to the general use of arsenic as a preventive of yellow fever.

Replying to his threat to claim the credit for the control of the situation, the Marine Hospital Service has informed Dr. Leach that if he issues such a statement the service will make public a list of 12 victims of yellow fever who were Leach's disciples.

Several of these have died and all had pronounced cases. The service further informed Dr. Leach that it had been trying to let him alone and they wished no interference from him.

"If you persist you will be shown up in your true light," are the words of the service in making its reply.

Fear Again Prevails.
The fever situation and public sentiment have undergone another change. Genuine optimism that characterized the feeling after the report of Sunday was displaced by fear and doubt after the Monday report.

The report for this morning up to noon shows 11 new cases and 6 deaths, against 26 new cases and 5 deaths for the same period yesterday. Two of today's deaths were in the Emergency Hospital, which is showing a decided strength in skillful handling and the cure of cases, many of which have been brought there in advanced stages of the disease.

Sixty-one new cases and nine deaths, total cases 1446 and total deaths 206, was the record of the first business day of the week. There were 11 new total, total to date, 322.

Announcement of one death and a false report of two other cases of yellow fever at Gregory, Mo., has caused quarantines to be enforced more strictly. Gregory is naturally not in the fever district and the only way the quarantine could secure the hold there would be through the medium of infected persons who have escaped quarantine.

The appearance of undisputed yellow fever as far north as Gregory has had the effect of making other northern points more wary of danger.

Federal Control Beneficial.
The beneficial effect of Government control is manifested in numerous ways and the promptness with which the people have accepted the instructions and advice of the United States Marine Hospital Service is largely responsible for improved conditions. As predicted in the Post-Dispatch yesterday, Dr. White, surgeon in charge of the Federal forces, has issued a public letter, advising a second and third fumigation of premises, to take place next Sunday and Monday.

Dr. White has abolished the detention camp at Slidell, La., where arrangements had been made with private parties to care for detained travelers. Numerous instances and excessive charges above the Government's stipulations were reported, so it was decided to abolish the present arrangement, and it is probable that the detention camp will be constructed by the United States Marine Hospital Service.

The spread of the fever to 16 new districts is viewed with alarm in New Orleans. Dr. Maxine Landry of the Marine Hospital Service, who caught the disease while at work among the afflicted, resides in the newly infected territory. This is the fourth time he has had the fever, although it is generally supposed that a person is immune after being once a fever victim.

Situation in the State.
The situation in the State, outside of New Orleans, is no more encouraging. Dr. Gutierrez posted the following bulletin after inspecting St. Mary's Parish at Riverside plantation:

"One hundred and fifty in infected barracks estimated 100 have fever."

Eight cases were reported from Hanson city in Jefferson Parish, Sunday; four from Kenner; two from Ellendale plantation; in Iberville; two from St. Bernard Parish and 10 from Patterson making 26 in all. Several other suspected cases were reported.

FORWARD! MARCH! MISSOURI GIRLS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
COLUMBIA, Mo., Aug. 22.—A military company, composed of the daughters of Boone County farmers, has been organized, with headquarters at Englewood, 11 miles southeast of Columbia.

The object of the organization is to demonstrate the fact that women, if properly armed and drilled, can make just as good soldiers as the stronger sex. The company is under the command of Mrs. Ernest H. Smith of Englewood, who ranks as captain.

Under her instructions it has become thoroughly efficient in the manual of arms. The first public exhibition took place

TAX RAISED TO RID BELLEVILLE OF DOGS

Not to increase revenue, but to diminish the number of dogs, the Belleville City Council has passed an ordinance raising the tax on all dogs inside the city limits from $1 per year to $2.

Advocates of the measure estimate that the number of dogs in the city will be reduced 75 per cent.

At a log-rolling at Englewood this week where, in the presence of a crowd of curious visitors from all parts of the county, the girl soldiers gave a striking exhibition, going through the entire manual of arms with the efficiency of veterans.

$30 FOR BAR EXAMINERS.

First Session of New Board Is Not Profitable.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 22.—William A. Miller of Cape Girardeau, George L. Mann of Osceola, E. M. Harber of Trenton and William T. Ragland of Monroe City, members of the State Board of Bar Examiners, created by the last General Assembly, are in the city this morning for the purpose of attending the first meeting of the board for organization.

The fifth member of the board, Henry D. Ashley of Kansas City, will arrive this afternoon. There is nothing to be done at this time other than to arrange the preliminaries for the work for which the body was created.

The first meeting of the board for organization of applicants for admission to the bar will be held in St. Louis next month.

The law made no appropriation for salaries for the examiners, and they will have to depend for remuneration and for their expenses on the fee of $10 which each applicant for a license to practice law will be charged.

As only three applicants have been admitted by the Supreme Court since the law went into effect, there is only $30 in the Treasury, hence the examiners will of necessity be compelled to advance money to defray their own expenses for the first meeting. It is estimated that the fee for examinations will aggregate $100.

PRINCE CANNOT COME.

Would Like to Make Visit to United States.

BRANDENBURG, Markt-Redwitz, Bavaria, Aug. 22.—Since Saturday last, German newspapers have been publishing statements to the effect that Prince Henry of Bavaria intended to again visit the United States, with the addition of details as to the private character of his tour.

The Prince and his suite are sojourning here, and today his court marshal, Admiral Von Seckendorff, said that these statements were "free inventions" and "absolutely unfounded."

Prince Henry, since his return from the United States in 1927, often told Americans whom he received that he desired to make a long visit, so that he might learn to know the country better, and that he wished to go to the West to hunt his game.

He has had several earnest invitations, but has been obliged to decline them all. As recently as last June he said to one of two Americans who were yachting at Kiel that he would some time see the United States again.

On one occasion, she says, he was away 10 days and returning, said he had been in Jefferson City and Kansas City when as a matter of fact he had been in De Moine and Chicago.

Married 26 years to a wife who has the habit of screaming at the night, awakening himself and neighbors, according to his allegations, David F. Berberich has filed suit for divorce from Mary W. Berberich.

Once when he was particularly annoyed by this shrieking, the husband says, he went to a lumber pile to sleep. He says he was chased from there with an ax by Mrs. Berberich and compelled to seek refuge in the home of a friend.

On their bridal journey by boat to New Orleans, Mrs. Matel Lindhorst, says her husband, Walter Lindhorst, began mistreating her. She says divorce, saying she was married in April, 1930, and that they separated the next month. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Beggie, and alimony.

MONTREAL, Aug. 22.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, accompanied by five of his staff officers, arrived here today on a special train from Quebec.

He was met by a reception committee representing the city. The visit of the Prince will be observed by festivities lasting two days. Prince Louis will visit Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls before returning to the fleet, which will remain anchored before Quebec.

MEN MAY GET TO JOIN.

Ballots Have Been Cast by Daughters of Liberty.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—The annual national convention of the Daughters of Liberty is in session here.

Votes already cast will be counted to determine whether or not all American-born men may be admitted to membership under the conditions governing the admission of women at present, which probably would involve a change of name from Daughters of Liberty to Sons and Daughters of Liberty.

The organization has 67,000 members. Twenty-four States are represented by 150 delegates.

MARK TWAIN IS BETTER.

Author, Recovering From Gout, Leaves His Bed.

WINSTEDT, Conn., Aug. 22.—Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) has so far recovered from the gout as to be able to leave his bed and be downstairs.

It was stated at Edgewood, the summer home of his daughter, Clara, in Norfolk, that the humorist could not wear his shoes yet, but he would certainly leave for his country residence in Dublin, N. H., Friday.

Auto Strikes Woman.

While alighting from an eastbound Olive street car at Tenth and Olive streets Monday, Mrs. Annie Solomon, aged 34, of 412 E. 14th avenue, was struck by an automobile operated by Edward Schwartz, 506 E. MEN MAY GET TO JOIN.

Ballots Have Been Cast by Daughters of Liberty.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—The annual national convention of the Daughters of Liberty is in session here.

Votes already cast will be counted to determine whether or not all American-born men may be admitted to membership under the conditions governing the admission of women at present, which probably would involve a change of name from Daughters of Liberty to Sons and Daughters of Liberty.

The organization has 67,000 members. Twenty-four States are represented by 150 delegates.

Author, Recovering From Gout, Leaves His Bed.

WINSTEDT, Conn., Aug. 22.—Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) has so far recovered from the gout as to be able to leave his bed and be downstairs.

It was stated at Edgewood, the summer home of his daughter, Clara, in Norfolk, that the humorist could not wear his shoes yet, but he would certainly leave for his country residence in Dublin, N. H., Friday.

HERE, TOLD WIFE HE WAS FAR AWAY

Mrs. Schnock Says Husband Misinformed Her as to His Whereabouts.

Mrs. Antonsa Schnock, bringing suit against Harry W. Schnock, former Deputy Sheriff of St. Louis County, alleges that he remained away from home many weeks at a time and did not give a satisfactory explanation of his absences.

On one occasion, she says, he was away 10 days and returning, said he had been in Jefferson City and Kansas City when as a matter of fact he had been in De Moine and Chicago.

Married 26 years to a wife who has the habit of screaming at the night, awakening himself and neighbors, according to his allegations, David F. Berberich has filed suit for divorce from Mary W. Berberich.

Once when he was particularly annoyed by this shrieking, the husband says, he went to a lumber pile to sleep. He says he was chased from there with an ax by Mrs. Berberich and compelled to seek refuge in the home of a friend.

On their bridal journey by boat to New Orleans, Mrs. Matel Lindhorst, says her husband, Walter Lindhorst, began mistreating her. She says divorce, saying she was married in April, 1930, and that they separated the next month. She asks the restoration of her maiden name, Beggie, and alimony.

"I'll Kill Myself If You Say That Again," Last Words to Escort.

KEOKUK, Ia., Aug. 22.—Horror-stricken, dozens of passengers on the steamer Silver Crescent at Meyer, Ill., saw a young woman believed to be Mrs. Pearl Kohl of Peoria, Ill., throw herself from the upper deck and drown in the muddy water before she could be rescued.

She was attractive and richly dressed and a member of a party that was making a fresh-air trip.

SCRUGGES' TEAM IS CLOSE TO AUGENTS

Dry Goods League, Reorganized, Is Booming Amateur Baseball.

The reorganization of the Dry Goods League after a year of inactivity, due to the World's Fair, has done more for amateur baseball in this vicinity than any similar formation since the days of the Business Men's League, some ten years ago.

The reorganization during 1935 marks the third year of the existence of the league. The pennant the first two seasons was won by the Scrugges, Vandervoort & Barney team. This year the team is second in the race to the Nationals, who lead by one game.

The Scrugges team is particularly fortunate in having for manager M. W. Eckert, who is an enthusiastic supporter of amateur baseball.

The Scrugges battery, Ireland and Austin, is admittedly one of the best in the Dry Goods League, and their inner and outer defenses are players of ability.

The following are the members of the Scrugges, Vandervoort & Barney team:

MUST PAY FOR ARREST

Otherwise France Will Occupy Port and Resort to Forceful Methods.

TANGIER, Morocco, Aug. 22.—The French Minister, St. Rene Taillandier, has presented to the Sultan, Mulai Abdel Aziz, an energetic demand for an indemnity of $200 for the recent arrest of a Franco-Algerian citizen. The Minister also demands the punishment of the official responsible for the arrest and an additional indemnity of $100 daily until the prisoner is released.

It is believed that the Sultan will promptly grant the demands of the Minister, as it is known that the French Government is determined to adopt forcible means to bring the Sultan to terms should satisfaction not be immediately given, including, if necessary, the occupation of a Moroccan port.

This incident is independent of the Franco-German controversy regarding the proposed international conference. Indeed, it is known that Germany approves the conference, and that the German Government has given official notification of its intention to support the action of the French Government, whereas the latter has not sought, directly or indirectly, any support in maintaining the rights of French citizens.

Moroccan officials recently arrested the chief of the Algerian settlement at Tangier because of local troubles. The demand of the French Minister for the release of the prisoner, who refused, the Sultan claims, that all French subjects, the moment they entered Moroccan territory, are under the jurisdiction as subjects of the Sultan.

MRS. C. C. CROSSMAN TO BE IN REVOLVER SHOOT.

Mrs. C. C. Crossman will take part in the United States championship revolver event at 50 yards, which will take place here Sept. 1 and 10. Mrs. Crossman reported to the police Monday night in the room over the subscription at First and Chestnut streets for the regular target practice of the St. Louis Revolver Club.

Her husband, who will be one of the contestants in the championship event, made the best record of Monday night. Mrs. Crossman was fifth, scoring 36 points out of a possible 100.

The championship shoot will be held at Clayton. A national officer of the United States Revolver Association will have charge, probably Dr. E. H. Kessler of St. Louis. Dr. Kessler, according to rules, will not be permitted to enter the trophy shoot of this season.

Sidney Sears, who has won the national trophy at 50 feet twice and holds the indoor championship, made but two points better than Mrs. Crossman at the practice Monday evening.

The other contestants are T. R. Barker, Dr. M. R. Moore, Charles Miller, Ed. Wald, Moses Summerfield, L. A. Fassett.

NEGROES SPLIT G. A. R. POST

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 22.—The question of traveling with negroes has broken out with fresh bitterness in the local G. A. R. post, known as the "Lily Whites," will go to the national reunion in Denver next month by a separate train from the regular State delegation.

Department Commander Bernard Matthews, who is at the head of the "Lily Whites," says that the members of the post are sore because they failed to get the negro vote in an election two years ago, and that the "Lily Whites" agitation is the result. They cut no figure in the State organization, he declares, and expressed their disapproval of any of them will attend the Denver reunion. The "regulars" will go on a special train.

RIVAL WHISTLES

SPLIT PUBLIC EAR

Boats Seek Negro Dancers' Patronage by Noise Which Alarms City.

Competing for the patronage of negro excursionists Monday night, the steamers Cordia H. Spencer and City of Providence made the night hideous for a time downtown. Unceasing shrieks from the siren whistles of the two big steamers aroused the lower part of the city, and rumors of disaster in the river spread rapidly.

Trouble began when the drum corps aboard the City of Providence, in addition to the customary dance music, made that loud, more popular of the two. On the Spencer it was seen that the siren whistles were being used to attract the ship and a quick remedy was sought.

"Well, fix it so they can't dance," one of the officers suggested. His plan was simple, consisting of pulling down the whistle string and leaving it pulled down. With the unceasing noise of that whistle ringing through the adjoining boat, music or dancing was impossible in kind. The whistle was tied down and all steam possible was kept up. The war of noise was a fearful one. Other craft up and down the river were startled and wondered what caused the shrieking.

Among those who were pulled in to investigate, some pulled in the Stacker Lee. Soon its whistle was added to the din.

Not until the two captains were satisfied that they had collected all the siren whistles and that they were giving the signal to shut off the noise and depart down the river.

MANY DEAD IN TERRIFIC STORM

Members of Families Missing Believed to Be Buried Under Debris.

BREAKS WOMAN'S ARM

Sections of Railroad Swept Away and Hailstones Wreck Crops.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 22.—Devastation, terrible and complete, was wrought on all sides of the Twin Cities by the storm of Sunday night, according to reports just received here. Through all the region from Anoka to Fillmore counties, reports tell of disaster and loss of life and property. Loss of life is estimated at 21 persons.

Five are reported dead from South-eastern Minnesota. Tosten Danielson was killed at Fountain, and in the vicinity of Lanesboro the members of five families are reported missing and presumably dead.

At Pilot a baby was torn out of the arms of Mrs. Frank Sanders, and when she stooped to pick up the child the terrific wind broke her arm in three places. Sanders was buried to the ground, and it is feared that his back was broken. Half 3 inches in diameter fell at Bushford and vicinity.

Members of families are missing, and it is believed they are buried under the debris which was strewn broadcast by the wind. Many instances of maiming are reported, and the total loss of life will not be known for some days.

Crops which had been cut and were ready for threshing suffered in many places and standing corn was damaged by hail and wind. Hailstones several inches in circumference worked havoc with crops in some sections.

Large sections of railroad tracks were swept away south of here and the mail trains on certain portions of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road were run yesterday on improvised tracks, making slow time on account of enforced insecurity of the roadbed. Washouts were numerous, both along the railroads and in the highways, the rain being enormous.

CANNON STANDS PAT

Speaker of National House Unmoved by Chicago Reciprocity Congress.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Speaker Cannon, on his way home to Danville, Ill., after a three weeks' outing at Lake Champlain, stopped off at Washington last night, intending, as he said, to "run an errand or two."

Mr. Cannon declined to enter upon any discussion of politics or politics, but he did assert most positively that the big reciprocity conference just ended at Chicago had not disturbed his adherence to the stand-pat doctrine. He held a conference on something, he said, but he did not say what it was. He wanted to know if any representative men were there. It was suggested that former Senator Harris of Kansas and Gov. Cummins of Iowa had been conspicuous in the proceedings.

"Um, Harris and Cummins," mused the Speaker, Harris and Cummins. Well, now there's nothing to prevent 'em having a meeting and adopting resolutions and such as that."

The Speaker clearly indicated that he does not expect Congress to convene until December.

WOMAN THWARTS PURSE SNATCHER

The East St. Louis police have a good description of a negro who attacked Mrs. Ellen Smith and attempted to get away with her purse, but was prevented by the spirited defense which she made.

Mrs. Smith was on her way to Brooklyn. Ahead of her was a negro whose suspicious actions caused her to turn aside and take a less-frequented path through high weeds.

The negro followed and snatched her purse. She screamed, and as the negro stumbled in his efforts to get away she jumped on him and wrested the purse from him, breaking it in his leather handle.

The approach of section hands, attracted by her screams, caused the negro to run. The purse contained $2.

"ROOM 13 NOT FOR US" SAY DOCTORS

Room 13 on Physicians' Row at City Hospital is a storeroom and follows No. 14 in defiance of the ordinary custom of writing numerals consecutively, all because three junior physicians objected to sleeping in a room so designated for ill fortune.

When the painter started down the hallway on which the junior physicians' rooms open, a count of rooms showed that No. 13 would fall to the lot of Drs. Shoemaker, Keifer and Tooke.

Their attention was called to it, and they protested against getting it. Pressure was brought to bear on the painter, and he obligingly made the storeroom No. 13 and painted "14" on the physicians' door.

ST. LOUIS HEIRESS IN SECOND ROMANCE

MR. & MRS. J. C. ESTES

Marriage of Marie Fleming Everest Brown Estes Is Revealed by Application for Property of Husband From Whom She Sought Divorce.

A news dispatch from Denver, Colo., announces Monday that J. C. Estes of East St. Louis was seen at the Metropolitan Hotel in that place and confirmed the story of his marriage to Mrs. Marie Fleming Everest Brown, stopdaughter of former General Superintendent H. L. Magee of the Wabash Railroad.

Mrs. Marie Fleming Everest Brown Estes was formerly Miss Marie Fleming Everest of St. Louis. Something over two years ago she became known to newspaper readers through a romance culminated in her marriage to Henry George Brown, an art student at Armour Institute, Chicago. To prevent the marriage, her grandmother, Mrs. Everest, took the girl from Chicago to Denver, from Denver to San Francisco, and from San Francisco to Los Angeles, Cal., where Brown and Miss Everest managed to escape to Santa Barbara and obtain a marriage license.

Thereupon the grandmother capitulated on condition that the couple would return with her to St. Louis and be married here. This they did, the marriage taking place April 15, 1903. The couple then went to Denver to live. Brown later filed suit for divorce, which Mrs. Brown answered with a cross-suit. The husband died while the suits were pending, the wife meanwhile having come into a fortune through the death of her grandmother.

Brown's estate was valued at $100,000, and it was said that Mrs. Brown's efforts to obtain possession of this estate led her to file a formal application in which her signature as Mrs. Marie Fleming Everest Brown Estes revealed the fact that she had taken another husband.

The couple are said to have been married in Denver. Mrs. Magee, the mother of Mrs. Marie Fleming Everest Brown Estes, has said that she has not been married to her daughter's marriage to Estes.

FRIENDS OF MRS. TAGGART TESTIFY

Niece and Chum Give Evidence in Favor of the Woman Defendant.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Irene Shields, a niece of Mrs. Taggart, a defense witness with the Taggarts at Manila, made the statement on the stand that Maj. Taggart was friendly with a Filipino woman.

According to her statement, Taggart was quarrelsome and jealous. On one occasion when he reached home and learned that his wife was driving with Capt. Bush, he jumped into another rig and followed them. On that occasion there was a quarrel and Capt. Bush left. Witness swore that she had never seen evidence of improper relations between Bush and Mrs. Taggart.

Mrs. Saffron, who was with Mrs. Taggart in the Matanzas cafe with a couple of officers when Capt. Taggart entered and dashed a glass from his wife's hand, testified.

She said she and Mrs. Taggart were not drunk, but drank hard and drank anything. The officers were not drunk, either, she said.

She was asked by Taggart's attorney if she was ever in a big army scandal at Fort Logan and if a young lieutenant named Ensign had been court-martialed and found guilty of misappropriating funds while on duty. The court refused to permit the question and she was also not compelled to answer when asked if she knew a young man at Fort Thomas named Boles.

WORKS TOO FAST, IS BADLY BEATEN

Shiloh Valley Coal Miner
Makes Whitecapping Charge
Against Fellow Workers.

TRIAL FOR WEDNESDAY

Says He Was Made to Take
Oath Not to Load More
Coal Than Others Did.

Back of the simple charge of disturbing the peace, to be heard Wednesday morning in Justice Wangelin's court, at Belleville, is a story of a crowd of citizens whose actions resembled tactics of the "White Caps" of a few years ago.

Michael Dominick of Shiloh Valley, in the complaining witness, and Peter Panter is defendant. Dominick says July 1 he was called from his house at midnight by a crowd of men and seriously beaten.

Saturday, George Hatzendebuehler, one of the men arrested for complicity in the affair, was tried in Justice Wangelin's court, and acquitted by a jury.

The evidence at the trial indicated that Peter Panter was the ringleader. It was brought out that Panter, at least, was a judge of the mob, and that it was to him that Dominick was led and before whom he took this solemn oath:

"You do solemnly swear by all that is good and holy, that you will not load any more coal than the rest of the men."

The wording of the oath indicates why it was that Dominick had received the beating. He is a coal miner. He had been at work in the mine at Shiloh Valley only a few weeks when the whipping occurred. It is related that he did more work than the other men, and as a bad example, from their point of view.

Dominick says that he was warned once by some of his fellow-workmen not to do so much work, but paid no attention to the warning. The whipping followed.

The State will attempt to prove that Panter uttered the oath that was brought out at the evidence given Saturday.

Post-Dispatch Newsboys No. 40

Earle Williams, 706 St. Louis Avenue, East St. Louis.

The boys in East St. Louis who make the money are the boys who sell the Post-Dispatch.

Earle Williams has been a Post-Dispatch newsboy four years and says he makes $10 a week.

His regular corner is at Missouri and Collinsville avenues. He does not sell all of his papers on the street, however, but has secured, by canvassing, 110 regular customers to whom he delivers the Post-Dispatch every day in the year.

Earle is a solicitor. He makes a canvass for new customers in his neighborhood several times a week.

He gets his daily supply of the Post-Dispatch at L. E. Martin's Post-Dispatch branch, 417A Missouri avenue, East St. Louis.

New boys in East St. Louis will have an excellent chance to make money selling the Daily Post-Dispatch, and Mr. Martin will take pleasure in showing them how.

Earle Williams is strong in the belief that the Post-Dispatch is best. "It's the paper we make the most money on," he says.

Desiring to make more money, Earle resigned his job in a store and joined the company of Post-Dispatch newsboys, has grown to be one of Branch Manager Martin's best helpers. He thinks he will be a blacksmith when he grows to be a man.

REBEKKA A GIRL OF THE GHETTO By IVAN WHIN COMPLETE IN SEVEN CHAPTERS.

CHAPTER II. A Rebel Reformed.

RABBI EPSTEIN lacked the money instinct of his people. He was thrifty in a sense, which is to say that he was frugal and had no expensive tastes; but he had no longing for wealth that might be estimated in dollars. Abraham Lefkowitz learned the rabbi's weakness early in their acquaintance, and repaid great charity given in time of his supreme need by constituting himself the rabbi's financier. Notwithstanding that Abraham was only a sweatshop contracting tailor, he became treasurer of the congregation because of his constant interest in the good old man's monetary welfare, and thereafter the rabbi's pockets were too full for comfort.

Theoretically, Jacob Epstein did not believe in what professional managers of charities call indiscriminate giving. Practically, all the schnorrers knew that he was a schnuckle. His heart was very tender and his imagination keen. Given facts of hunger, cold, disease, bereavement, he would ever put himself in the sufferer's place, and thus would feel under compulsion to do all that lay in his power to alleviate.

Some men lose faith because, having trusted a man or a woman, the trusted one proves false. Many were false to Rabbi Epstein, but his faith in mankind grew stronger as his years increased because of the scrupulous honesty of the few in the horde of those he aided.

Lefkowitz's method of recompense touched the old man deeply and he was wont to show great emotion when he recalled Rubinstein's exact repayment of all the sums for which Epstein stood bondman in Sigismund's year of trouble.

Benny became the rabbi's special charge and the eyes of his favor rested on Rebekka also, but as she was of womankind he could not teach her the mystery of the rolls.

Once a month he dined with the Rubinstein. The first occasion was the twelfth birthday of Benny, which occurred the week they moved into the second floor of a Carr place house.

Mrs. Rubinstein tied a silk kerchief about her head and served, but would not sit at the table. Esther and Benjamin were forbidden to enter the dining room, and gazed at the feast with great, envious eyes from the bedroom doorway.

Rebekka, ordered to do likewise, rebelled, placed a chair and plate for herself by the rabbi's side.

During the ceremonial blessing of the food she sat as one apart. Knowing well that this was rabbinical business, fitted only for men, and yet protesting, by nonobservance of the woman's code, to the great scandal of the rabbi's side.

The rabbi then and afterward laughed at her and gave her his aftershave when he saw that her mother debarred her from the sweets. Wherein he showed his great heart, for he was no ascetic, and often quoted the saying of Rab, that we shall have to render account some day for all the good things to eat which we have seen and not tasted.

Thus, you see, Rebekka had great favor, and it was natural that she should love the old man. She remained in the room when the rabbi taught Benny, making great pretense that she, too, was learning Hebrew and the law. Not altogether pretense, either, for she did absorb much, as children will, their minds being as putty to all that is new and strange.

Hebrew constructions were natural to her and vitiated her English, so that between her tenth and twelfth year the teachers who had her in charge at the public school despaired.

Rosa Burke gave her a new inclination. Rosa's people were of the Jewish faith for all their Irish name. Burke approximated the sound of the first syllable in the unpronounceable name they brought from Persia and she adopted it with other improvements in their condition. Rosa became a teacher in the public schools and in time came to preside over the grade in which Rebekka struggled. Rosa com-prehended Rebekka and did not try to force her into the English path, but led her by a display of advantages to be gained.

"Come, little one," she pleaded in Yiddish. "Let us grow very wise in English and when I am married then maybe they will give you leave to teach here in my place."

The idea that she might gain an elevation so superb fascinated the child. She had never before comprehended the value of study; the lessons had meant nothing but daily compulsions. Yiddish and the Hebrew she got from the rabbi and Benny had seemed sufficient for her. In her world those were the languages needed, but now it seemed that this English carried benefits with it. She became the most diligent of students, mastering painfully the correct form of English sentences and curing herself of the deplorable ghetto habit of mixing languages.

Benny appealed to, aided her greatly for he had reached the high school, traveling the same rough road, and bade fair now to graduate with highest honors.

It was like a Rubinstein, this lad's ambition to earn money. He carried papers in the morning for a German who owned the route, and sold the Post-Dispatch after school. As he was always in bed at 8 o'clock, and there were lessons to be learned out of school, he would have had no time to help Rebekka if she had not divided with him his morning labor. The German got papers from the newspaper offices and brought them in a cart to a rendezvous on Franklin avenue, whence, he the keeper, sold, wet, gray or bright, Benny and Rebekka scurried lightening loads almost beyond their carrying power by distribution to the south and east. At 5 o'clock their work was finished and for one hour Benny read to Rebekka or supervised her reading of the news.

They read from choice stories of crimes and sudden wealth. They pored excited over stories of speculations which had brought gamblers enormous returns and conned sorrowfully tales of embezzlement and forgery. The moralist would not find such papulum fitted for such minds, yet youth possesses a solvent in which evil tales swim innocuous. They got some hints of what other people in the world were doing, and Rebekka acquired much knowledge of English.

It was fortunate that she possessed the racial gift for arithmetic and that language was her one weak branch in scholarship, else she would have been left behind when her class was promoted to the High School. She graduated from the grammar school the month Benny left the High School, and although he carried all honors, Rebekka narrowly overcame the minimum percentage necessary for promotion.

Sigismund Rubinstein's store, begun as a peddler's depot, did a small trade with neighbors. At first the trade was purely accommodation, though not without profit. The goods sold ranged through all the small needs of housekeeping, even carpets, oilcloth, curtains and baby carriages. The trade grew and he left the road to manage the business.

He grew with the trade. There is one quality peculiar to his race, which shines as a supreme virtue—love of family and home. As he prospered the family style of living improved. He hired a girl to assist his wife in the housework and moved to a house of modest proportions on Carr street, where a yard gave opportunity for the erection of a shelter of boughs, in which the family resided during the heat of booms.

before, but now he shaved it and faced his shocked wife laughing.

"Fine," he grunted when she complained, "shall I grow old before my time? That is not fashionable for a business man. The beard is bad business. In this country it is the young man that gets the credit. I will be young and alive and I will make much money for the children. Let Benny raise the beard. He is the rabbi."

Mrs. Rubinstein sought to add her husband in his store, but he would not permit it.

"Take Rebekka down there then," she implored. "Let her look after the cash." "Fine," he said. "I make her one of those wire cages and she comes down evenings and Saturdays and sits there with her book and takes the money."

It was the sort of innovation that charmed him, and Rebekka seized upon the work he offered eagerly, bargaining only for a small wage that would make her independent of his precarious bounty.

To Be Continued in the Post-Dispatch Tomorrow (Wednesday.)

The Swindling Tramp.

James B. Dill, whose recent speech on "Graft," at Oberlin College, impressed the entire country, told recently, apropos of graft, a story about a swindling tramp.

"This tramp," said Mr. Dill, "had the alert, unscrupulous, bold mind that makes grafting successful."

"He was walking down a city street one day when he saw a little boy stoop and pick up something."

"He crossed over to the boy quickly."

"You have made a find, my lad?" he said.

"Yes, sir," said the innocent boy; "I have found a silver ring."

"I thought so," said the tramp. "It's the one I just dropped. Now ain't it lucky that I had my name cut in it?"

"What is your name?" said the boy, suspiciously.

"Sterling, lad."

"Take it, then. It's yours," said the boy, handing over the ring with a disappointed air. "San Antonio Express."

Mosquito Bites
Cause
Malaria and Yellow Fever

Scientists have discovered after the most careful tests and experiments that mosquitoes are actually the means of conveying Malaria, Yellow Fever and all summer fevers. These dangerous insects carry the disease germs from swamp and stagnant pools, and when they bite they inject the poison directly into the human blood. The only way to be safe from these diseases is to stop the mosquito from biting—you may say, "Kasler said that," but it's an actual fact that you can do this.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur
Prevents Mosquito Bites
and the bites of all insects such as Chiggers (Red Bugs), Wood Ticks, etc. It not only does this, but it puts the blood in such a fine healthy condition, that you are rendered immune from all contagious diseases. You can do this.

By following these directions: Take a few drops of Littell's Liquid Sulphur in a glass of water night and morning for a week or ten days, also apply externally to exposed spots in mosquito season.
